

Dabba Doo Time (call name Archie)

About

Archie is our handsome dark caramel loose fleece coated mini stud that descends all the way from most of our original Cream Puff Labradoodles. Archie is already Royalty here even before you look at his pedigree, which contains names like "Prince Harry", "Czar" and Hollywood royalty of "Natalie Wood", "James Dean Rebel with a Cauz" - the list goes on!

Archie has the ability to produce puppies in colors of red, cream, caramel, chocolate, black and phantom depending on the girl he is mated with - what we breeders call a "Rainbow" litter with phantom possible coloring to boot!

A very lucky doodle! Not only does Archie have his very own swimming pool, he also has a doting Guardian family where he lives in NJ! Archie is mostly New American lines with the remainder of his pedigree tracing back to wonderful old Australian lines. This blend of New with Old maintains the "Labby-fetch" mentality that we love about Labradoodles!
