

Nieto de Fuego (call name Nieto)

About

Nieto is our handsome new line Australian red, parti-factored stud. He is the grandson of our infusion stud, Jugar con Fuego, and is a lovely representation of our journey to breed a new Australian line of deep red, and red & white parti Labradoodles.

Nieto makes us smile when we look at him because we see the culmination of a dream for the Cream Puff Labradoodle program - to breed a unique and rare deep red pedigreed new Australian line. A red that is rumored to be the "elusive rufus gene" that there is not even a genetic test for yet. We are extremely lucky to have produced such a red boy such as Nieto to add to our program.

Nieto lives in an awesome Guardian home near the Jersey Shore not far from Asbury Park!
