

Trifecta (call name Phantom)

About

Phantom is our handsome Tricolored medium stud who is the son of our Phantom Menace and our Jackson Pollock! He has matured beautifully and was the very first black phantom tri-colored puppy produced here at CPL! Many people mistake him for a Bernadoodle as he has exactly the same markings as many of them exhibit.

Phantom has an unusual pedigree for a program such as ours. His dad is an LO Generation Multigen. It's very rare to get such a soft fleece coat on a Labradoodle that has as much Labrador in him as Phantom does. The benefit to our program is that he ensures his awesome Labrador personality gets passed on to his puppies and consequently will enhance the "Labby-fetch" personalities of the puppies that our program is known for well into the future. As Phantom is almost all from unique lines, he will help increase the genetic diversity of this wonderful breed, maintaining its vitality into the future.

Phantom lives with a wonderful Guardian family that were also Guardians of his Mom, so he gets to live with her in her retirement. We are told he is still a bit of a "Momma's Boy!"
