

Battle Cry (call name Moose)

About

Moose is our handsome cafe chocolate, parti-factored, large medium stud from our Erica Hope litter with Alamo. We are so excited about this stunning boy!

Moose has a unique pedigree for a program such as ours. His dad is the son of a multi-gen Australian with an Flb, and his mother is a multi-gen American. It's really rare to get such an awesome fleece coat on a Labradoodle in this generation. We choose only the best of each litter for breeding and consequently, Moose will enhance the "Labby-fetch" personalities of our puppies while maintaining those awesome coats for which our program is known. Moose will increase the genetic diversity of Labradoodles and maintain the breed's vitality for many years to come.

Moose lives in a wonderful Guardian home with children he adores just minutes away from Cream Puff Manor.
