

Cantare (call name Nena)

About

Nena is our cutesy apricot girl who just loves to cuddle and give kisses. She is the daughter of our CPL Comare and our CPL Nieto de Fuego.

Nena has a sweet, gentle temperament and will almost always try to get head scratches! When she's with us we usually find her sitting near a door or window, observing the outside waiting to go play. She loves to be around other dogs and her social characteristics have made her an amazing mother.

We expect Nena to produce apricot and parti puppies. She has had solid apricot puppies in the past, and we can't complain about having mini Nenas running around!

Nena lives in New Jersey with her wonderful guardian family who completely adore her.
