(call name Lenny)

About

Lenny is our handsome little liver-nosed stud from Fluffy's Bam Bam and CC's Caramel Swirl. He is only 68% poodle, so has less poodle than an Flb American Labradoodle even though he's an Australian Labradoodle! Lenny is living proof you can have your cake and eat it too! He's a very "labby" Labradoodle with a soft non-shedding wavy fleece coat.

Lenny represents 3/4 new American lines and is an asset to the Australian Labradoodle community here in the USA, helping ensure that genetic diversity is maintained. His liver nose brings with it his stunning green eyes, a coloring we love and breed for here at Cream Puff. Lenny will pass his superior genetics to his offspring in our program, helping to ensure that your pet puppy has a long, happy, productive life!

Lenny holds a special place in our hearts as he is the grandson of one of the three Labradoodles that live with our Founder. Lenny lives in a wonderful Guardian home with his canine Dad - yes, he's one of the lucky dogs that gets to live their entire lives with one of their doggy parents!
